Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of claims 1-3 in the reply filed on 7/25/06 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The specification should be reviewed for grammar and idiom. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 1 recites the broad recitation "knitwear", and the claim also recites "so as of a sock" which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

In claim 1, the recitations "the first half of the dial sinkers", "the first half circle of the needles" and "the toe pouch" are indefinite as they lack clear antecedent basis. The pronoun "it" found throughout the claim is unclear as to the specific element being referenced. Also claims 1-3 are unclear as to the specific method steps being claimed. A more positive recitation of the specific method steps is needed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 insofar as definite are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lonati et al (5727400).

Art Unit: 3765

The disclosure of Lonati et al (5727400) teaches the invention as claimed insofar as definite including a dial plate (3), dial sinkers (6) and needles (7) and the steps of transferring the knit wear with a transfer means (4). Re claim 2, note that the transfer means is overturned by 180 degrees and transferred from the dial to the half-needles. Re claim 3, note the loops are taken off and hanged on the working ends of the transferring means and they are transferred above the needles (7) of the second half-circle, which needles then lift and take it over.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
